

Property Information Questionnaire

PART 1

This form should be completed by the seller. The seller maybe the owner or owners; a representative with the necessary authority to sell the property for a living owner (e.g. a power of attorney) or be selling in some other capacity. The form should be completed and read as though the questions were being answered by the owner.

If you are the seller, you should be aware -

- Answers given in this form must be truthful and accurate to the best of your knowledge. The questions have been designed to help the smooth sale of your home. Misleading or incorrect answers are likely to be exposed later in the conveyancing process and may endanger the sale.
- Information in this form does not replace official documents or legal information. You should be prepared to provide such documents on request in support of the answers given on this form.
- If you hold any guarantees for work on your property, your buyers conveyancer is likely to ask for evidence, which it is in your interest to make available as soon as possible.
- If anything changes to affect the information given in this form prior to the sale of your home, you should inform your conveyancer or estate agent immediately.

If you are an estate agent you should be aware -

- This form should be completed by the seller but it is your responsibility to ensure that it is included in the Home Information Pack.
- The Property Misdescriptions Act 1991 does not apply where the form has been completed solely by the seller.

If you are the buyer you should be aware -

- This information should have been completed truthfully and accurately by the seller. However, the information only relates to the period during which the seller has owned the property (see question 1) and does not replace official documents or legal information and you should confirm any information with your conveyancer.

The seller must provide the information set out in Part 1 of this questionnaire. Where the property being sold is a leasehold property, the seller must also complete Part 2 of this questionnaire.

Explanatory Notes to Numbered Items

19. The landlord will normally be the person to whom the ground rent is payable, although it is possible that an agent may be employed to collect this on the landlords behalf. The person or the organisation to whom the service charge is payable may be your landloar or head landlord or a residents' management company you should find the landlord's details on your latest service charge demand. It is also possible that an agent has been employed to collect service charges on their behalf.

20. The number of years is calculated by taking the original number of years the lease was granted for and deducting the number of years that have expired since the lease was first granted.

21. This information will be found in the lease.

21. This information will be found in the previous year's service charge demands.

24. Leaseholders should have been notified of this as part of the required consultation process where their contribution for the work exceeds GBP 250.

Please note: All leaseholders should have their own copy of the lease although sometimes this is held by the mortgage lender or the conveyancer who handled the purchase. A copy can normally be obtained from the Land Registry (www.LandRegisterOnline.gov.uk). It is unlikely that the managing agent will be able to obtain a copy of the lease.
